1 PREAMBLE

2 These Rules of Procedure are adopted for the purpose of carrying out the functions and 3 responsibilities of the ASEA/AFSCME Local 52 Judicial Panel, a body established by the 4 ASEA/AFSCME Local 52 Constitution for the purpose of resolving internal union disputes.

5
6 In adopting these Rules, the Judicial Panel recognizes that it is not a court of law. The Judicial
7 Panel is a part of ASEA/AFSCME Local 52 which, by definition, is a trade union. The members
8 of the Judicial Panel, like their brothers and sisters in ASEA/AFSCME Local 52, are first and 9 foremost trade unionists. The members of the Judicial Panel are united in their belief that 10 disputes between ASEA/AFSCME Local 52 members involving ASEA/AFSCME Local 52’s
11 Constitution can, and should be, resolved within the Union, in a manner consistent with trade 12 union principles and without resort to courts and lawyers.

13
14 ASEA/AFSCME Local 52’s procedures for the resolution of internal union disputes are designed 15 to allow rank-and-file union members to represent themselves without having to incur the cost of 16 outside counsel.

39 the ASEA/AFSCME Local 52 State Executive Board for determination.

40
41 Section 4. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these Rules, the date of 42 receipt of any document shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be

1 included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until 2 the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday.

3
4 Section 5. During the pendency of the case, it shall be the responsibility of each party to inform 5 the Judicial Panel Chairperson and the Trial Officers hearing the case immediately in writing, in

39 filed with the Judicial Panel within thirty (30) days following receipt of the decision. The appeal
40 shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by a copy of the original charge and of the decision
41 that is being appealed. The appeal shall set forth in substance the appellant's reasons for 42 believing the subordinate trial body was in error and the nature of the error.

1 Section 2. Upon receipt of the appeal, the Judicial Panel shall make an initial determination as to 2 whether or not the matter is to be filed. Should the Panel find that the appeal has not been 3 submitted in a timely fashion, such appeal shall be summarily rejected; provided, however, that
4 if the Panel finds that there were compelling or mitigating circumstances which caused the delay,
5 the Panel may hold that the appeal is properly filed before the Panel.

6
7 Section 3. Should the Panel find that the original charge which is part of the appeal is not
8 sufficiently specific and detailed, the Judicial Panel Chairperson shall notify both the accused 9 and the accuser of such finding and shall allow the accuser an additional period, not to exceed 10 fifteen (15) days in which to make the charge more specific. If, at the end of such additional 11 period, there is not pending a charge which meets the standards of specificity set forth in Article
12 X, Section 6, of the International Constitution, the Panel may dismiss the charge and set aside
13 any decision or penalty that may have been set by any subordinate trial body.

14
15 Section 4. Upon finding that the appeal is properly before the Panel, the Judicial Panel
16 Chairperson shall appoint a Trial Officer in the manner provided in Article IV, Section 1, of 17 these Rules.

18
19 Section 5. The Trial Officer shall establish the date, time, and place for the hearing in 20 accordance with Article X, Sections 12, 13, and 21 of the International Constitution, and shall 21 notify the parties at least fifteen (15) days in advance of such hearing.

22

28 person and the person bringing the charge and shall enter the matter into the record.

29
30 Section 8. The Trial Officer may grant the parties the right to file briefs subject to such time
31 limitations as the Trial Officer considers reasonable under the circumstances.
