Constitutional Amendment No. 5

(Constitutional Amendments received by 5:00 p.m. on January 31, 2024, require a two-thirds vote. No Constitutional Amendments may be received from the Floor.)

1
2 Whereas, ASEA members receive election nomination petitions from the ASEA Elections Committee at 3 ASEA Headquarters (HQ), and
4
5 Whereas, ASEA members submit election nomination petitions to the ASEA Elections Committee at ASEA
6 Headquarters (HQ) and many members self-nominate, and
7
8 Whereas, ARTICLE 14.02 Nominations, of the ASEA Constitution currently requires that members
9 submitting an election nomination petition to serve as a delegate to the AFSCME Biennial Convention must 10 obtain at least ten (10) signatures from other members of ASEA, and 11
12 Whereas, it is difficult for some members to obtain ten (10) signatures because ASEA has members scattered
13 across Alaska’s large landmass, those members tend to not submit an election nomination petition to 14 participate as an AFSCME Convention delegate, and 15
16 Whereas, the AFSCME International Constitution does not require nominated Convention delegates to obtain 17 ten (10) signatures from fellow members, and 18
19 Whereas, other AFSCME councils and locals do not require members to obtain ten (10) signatures to be 20 nominated as a delegate to the AFSCME Conventions,
21
22 Therefore, Be It Resolved, to strike from the ASEA Constitution; Article 14, Section 14.02, Nominations; on 23 page 21, the words “and must obtain the signatures of no less than ten (10) other member”, and 24
25 Be It Resolved, Article 14, Section 14.02, Nominations be changed to read:
26
27 14.02 Nominations.
28
29 Nominations shall be made by nominating petitions submitted to the Elections Committee. To be nominated
30 for delegate, one must be a member in good standing ~~and must obtain the signatures of no less than ten (10)~~
31 ~~other members~~ of the union (see Article IV, Sections 5 and 12 of the AFSCME Constitution).

Constitutional Amendment No. 6

(Constitutional Amendments received by 5:00 p.m. on January 31, 2024, require a two-thirds vote. No Constitutional Amendments may be received from the Floor.)

1
2 ELECTION TIMELINE FOR OFFICER AND DELEGATE ELECTIONS

3
4 Whereas, the current election timeline in Article 7.05.C. and 7.05, is thirty (30) days, based on
5 mailed paper ballots;

6
7 Whereas, the AFSCME Elections Code (AFSCME Constitution – Appendix D) requires elections
8 using an electronic ballot to follow the same timeline as the mailed paper ballot; and,

9
10 Whereas, the electronic ballot election process allows for immediate access to the ballot and voting
11 and ballot happens immediately.

12
13 Therefore, Be it Resolved, that the election timeline be revised to reflect the minimum requirement
14 of twenty (20) days between ballot distribution and ballot count as reflected in the AFSCME
15 Elections Code; and,

16
17 Be it Further Resolved, that the ASEA Policies and Procedures be updated and the ASEA

33 candidate for election, or hold any other elected or appointed office
